

Rose & Womble Internal Essay Contest & Scholarship Application Guidelines
Sponsored by The Rose & Womble Foundation

PARTICIPATION ELIGIBILITY

This contest is open to current high school juniors and seniors who have an immediate family member who is either employed by Rose & Womble Realty Company or one of its affiliate companies[#], or who is a Rose & Womble Realtor[®]. Entrants must be preparing to continue their education at a two or four year institution or a vocational/trade school as a full time student (minimum of 12 credit hours per semester).

"immediate family member" is defined as close relatives by birth or marriage including siblings, children, grandchildren and any financial dependents.

[#]Affiliate companies include: Advance Mortgage Company, Advance Title & Abstract, Residential Data Bank, and Land Planning Solutions

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

- Type or legibly print, in blue or black ink, all requested information.
- Complete the form entirely; if a question is not applicable to you, indicate so by answering "N/A"
- Attach your official high school transcripts to your application.
- You may submit up to three letters of recommendation with your entry.

ESSAYS

- Entries must describe the applicant's humanitarian efforts, community involvement, and volunteerism, focusing on the impact, length of service, and ability to meet community needs.
- Submit your typed essay on letter sized [8.5" x 11"] paper.
- Entries should be in a 12 point, legible font, double-spaced, and not to exceed 2 pages.

JUDGING

Failure to comply with the aforementioned criteria will result in automatic disqualification. Judging will be based on the student's impact, the community needs that have been met, and the difference made by their actions. Students should also demonstrate high moral character and a spirit of giving. All work must be the original work of the student. The judging panel will be comprised of Rose & Womble Foundation Board Members.
